

CORRECTIONAL PLACEMENT RESIDENCE

BASIS “Alternative Correctional Housing” means residential facilities for individuals or offenders who require a more structured, supervised residential living environment than independent living. This community-based living arrangement is an alternative to incarceration in either state penal institutions or the Sedgwick County Jail.

“Correctional Placement Residence” means a facility for individuals or offenders that provides residential and/or rehabilitation services for those who reside or have been placed in such facilities due to any one of the following situations: (1) prior to, or instead of, being sent to prison; (2) received a conditional release prior to a hearing; (3) as a part of a local sentence of not more than one year; (4) at or near the end of a prison sentence, such as a state operated or franchised work release program, or a privately operated facility housing parolees; (5) received a deferred sentence and placed in facilities operated by community corrections; or (6) require court-ordered guidance services for alcohol or chemical dependence.

If disapproved, only ½ of the fee shall be refunded. Takes about 30 days for approval.
