Patrol North officers conduct impromptu prostitution sting operation

Patrol and Special Community Action Team officers Monday conducted an “impromptu” prostitution sting that resulted in the arrest of five people late last night and early this morning.

After 911 dispatch received more than a dozen calls from citizens on Broadway on Monday, May 31st, Patrol North Bureau supervisors immediately organized a prostitution sting operation. During the special assignment, which ran from 10:30 p.m. on May 31 to 12:30 a.m. on June 1, WPD used undercover vehicles and decoy officers to contact prostitutes in the 900 through the 1200 blocks of North Broadway. The information regarding those arrested follows.
