Kids, Law Enforcement Officers Once Again ‘Hooked On Fishing’

About 150 children and 25 Wichita Police Officers will take part in the second annual Hooked On Fishing event this coming Saturday, it was announced today by WPD Officer Justin Whyte.

“This event is a great opportunity for young people from around the area to get involved in fishing, one of America’s great pastimes,” said Whyte.

Hooked on Fishing gives youth who don’t normally have an opportunity to fish a chance try their luck at a local lake. The event, which is sponsored by the Tackle Depot, Taco Bell, Pepsi, Texas Roadhouse, Barney’s Deep Discount, George Lay Signs and Allen-Lee Screen Printing, runs from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. this Saturday at Harrison Park, 1300 S. Webb Road.

“Each child who participates in the event will receive a T-shirt, fishing tackle, and a fishing pole, all at no cost,” said Whyte. “There will also be door prizes that children can win just for showing up.”

For more information on the Hooked on Fishing program, contact Officer Justin Whyte at the Patrol East Bureau, 316-688-9300.
