Media Advisory KACP Awards Banquet

The Kansas Association of Chiefs of Police (KACP) will recognize law enforcement officers and agencies at the Valor Awards Banquet scheduled for Wednesday evening, May. 9 at the downtown Hyatt Regency Hotel. The ceremony will follow a dinner beginning at 7 p.m.

Annually, the KACP acknowledges the dedication, hard work and sacrifice of law enforcement members through the Valor Awards program. This year, several Wichita Police Department (WPD) Officers are recipients of an award.

The WPD honorees are as follows:

- Brian Arterburn – Gold Award
- Kyle Perry – Gold Award
- Chris Mains – Gold Award
- Walter Bautista-Montoya – Silver Award
- Darrin Williams – Silver Award
- Jason Cooley – Silver Award
- WPD Violent Crimes Community Response Team – Unit Citation Bronze Award

The awards banquet is part of the 2018 KACP Leadership and Technology Conference, hosted by KACP and the WPD. The three-day conference will take place Monday, May 7 – Thursday, May 10 at the Hyatt.

Media are invited to attend the awards banquet. To attend the banquet, please contact WPD Officer Charley Davidson by Friday, April 27 at cdaavidson@wichita.gov.
